WITH Jon Chandler

FEATURING: Ernie Martinez, Johnny Neill & Jeff Graves

MACK BAILEY & RACHEL LEVY, ELLEN STAPENHORST JOIN JON CHANDLER AUGUST 31.

Arvada, CO. September 2 – The Olde Town Pickin' Parlor continues the sixth season of America's Soul Live! an acoustic concert series, at 7:30 p.m. on Tuesday, September 21, with host Jon Chandler welcoming three of Colorado's finest Folk/Americana singer-songwriters, Mack Bailey & Rachel Levy and Ellen Stapenhorst.

A member of the Limelighters and the John Denver Tribute Band, Mack Bailey is one of ASL's most popular guests. He's joined for this return appearance by his equally talented wife, Rachel Levy. Their wondrous vocals, solid songwriting, and Mack's exceptional guitar work are not to be missed. Welcome back, Mack!

America's Soul Live! gives listeners an Austin City Limits-type experience with award-winning singer/songwriter/author Jon Chandler welcoming contemporaries to the stage each month. Chandler and his guests are joined by string wizard Ernie Martinez, Denver's fiddler of choice Johnny Neill, and bassist extraordinaire Jeff Graves.

Ellen Stapenhorst is a troubadour, through and through. Although she's worked (and continues to work) with the best musicians in the business, her solo work is both affective and effective. Her songs are intimate musings filled with sharp observations, whimsy and humor. Her vocals and guitar work are marvelous, and it's a great pleasure to welcome her to ASL for the first time.
